RENO A CONSISTENT TOWN.

According to the Reno Journal, Reno is about the greatest town this side of Mars. So great is it indeed that it has passed up to the general public a proposition to furnish the town with a slogan, for which it offers the munificent sum of $10, said to have been obtained by popular subscription. Up to this time many of the papers of the state have suggested a name. This paper feels that it is entitled to elbow in with the slogan, "Watch us blow," and respectfully request that the ten plunks be sent us by return mail.

Reno, by the way, is quite a town. Some few months ago the papers of that berg were yelling themselves hoarse against gambling. At this time there is a race meet in that city and the papers are devoting no end of space to it, "while editorially the 'papers are as silent as the tomb.' Can it be that they countenance betting on the horse races, while they oppose the same pastime at the faro bank.

DEATH VALLEY MINER ATTEMPTS AT SUICIDE

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 19.—Martin J. Murphy, 56 years old, a Death valley miner, was picked up by patrolmen in the streets this morning after he had slashed his throat with a pocket knife.

Murphy came to Los Angeles several days ago to buy supplies, which he intended to use upon another prospecting trip in Death valley. Here he met other old prospectors, and they told tales of the struggles they had made for gold, leaning over various bars and swallowing many kinds of poison in their narrations.

This morning Murphy found himself without a cent, he says, and, worse than that, he was decidedly intoxicated. He decided that he wanted to die.

Having no money, he could not purchase any drug or rent a room with gas in order to hasten his demise, so he bethought himself of his pocketknife—a "loadstabber," which had done him good service often in the cutting of a myriad of rashes of bacon, and in opening innumerable cans of beans.

He drew it from his pocket and slashed his throat. A laceration three inches in length resulted upon the right side, while one only half as long was inflicted upon the left. He probably will live.

THE PRINTERS' LANGUAGE.

Many people are not aware that printers have a language of their own, unintelligible to the uninitiated. The following up-to-date orders from an exchange give an idea of the printing office lingo: "Billy, put Sir Charles Tupper on the galley and finish up that murder you commenced yesterday. Set up the ruins of Herculaneum and distribute the smallpox. Lock up Laurier and slide McCarty into the hell box and leave the pie alone until after dinner. Put the ladies' form to press, and go to the devil and put him to work on Deacon Fogg's article on 'Eternal Punishment.'"

Now this is all simple enough when translated into English and not nearly so rough as the reader may imagine.—Exchange.

WANTED WHITE SQUAW AND LANDS IN COUNTY JAIL

JOHNNY BOULDER IMBIBES TOO MUCH FIRE WATER—HAS STRANGE IDEAS.

Johnnie Boulder, of Baxter Springs, was a Tonopah arrival Wednesday. He will depart for his home at the springs nine days hence or in other words, when he completes his sentence at the county bastille. Johnnie is an Indian, and naturally has a tendency to absorb much of the white man's fire water. He brought to this city one and one-half cords of Baxter Springs wood and proceeded to sell it for $16. He could not stand the prosperity and started out on a still hunt for joy juice. He had no trouble in securing the amount needed to make him the happiest red man in town and things went well until at an early hour of the morning he hit on the happy idea of capturing one of the white squaws on Coronado avenue. The noise he made in attempting to batter down the door informed the police officers that there was trouble and in a very few seconds, Johnnie was reposing in the city jail. He was tried before Judge Atkinson yesterday morning and received a sentence of ten days for disturbing the peace. He will make a valuable acquisition to the chain gang, and should prove real handy in making little boulders out of big ones.

HUSBAND OF MRS. MANN GOES TO GOLDFIELD

There are no new developments in the Casey tragedy to be recorded this morning. On yesterday's train to Goldfield was James Mann, husband of the lady who was seriously injured by a bullet fired by the drink-crazed fiend who occupies a cell in the local jail. Mr. Mann was located in San Francisco where he has been for the past several weeks.

Word from Goldfield last evening stated that Mrs. Mann was in a very critical condition and that she was not expected to survive the night. Her death is hourly expected. Up to this time she has made no statement concerning the crime, the doctors fearing that any attempt to talk with her about it would ruin whatever chances there were of recovery. However, if she sinks much lower it will be necessary to get a dying statement from the lady.

Casey put in his time yesterday in the county jail in the usual manner. He is non-communicative with the officers, keeping his own counsel.

A brother of Mrs. Heslip, Lieutenant George Lorenz of the Salt Lake City fire department, was expected to arrive in Goldfield yesterday to take charge of the bodies of his sister and brother-in-law. The remains will be removed to Manitou, Colorado, for burial. It was in that Colorado town where Mrs. Heslip first saw the light of day.

JUDGE AVERILL TAKES VACATION FOR FEW DAYS

WILL VISIT IN CALIFORNIA UNTIL THE TWENTY-EIGHTH OF THE MONTH.

After a most strenuous session of the district court, Judge Averill has declared a recess for ten days. The interim will be spent by his honor on a vacation to California points.

Since Judge Averill's occupancy of the bench, there has been a lot of business dispatched. Besides the matters that have come up originally before him, there was any amount of unfinished business. The Judge has worked assiduously to clean up the calendar and while a number of cases remains to be disposed of, he has shown a great capacity for labor.
